

Corporate Overview

About Us

Medical Excess provides catastrophic healthcare risk solutions to organizations that are at risk for the healthcare of their members. We distribute our products through a select number of qualified Claims Administrators and brokers. Providing clients with value added capabilities is a commitment we make to our Producers.

Medical Excess, a member company of American International Group (AIG), has been underwriting Employer Stop Loss on behalf of its AIG carriers since 1974. The company maintains underwriting offices in South Coast Metro, California and Indianapolis, Indiana.

When all the parts work together...

The executive team and staff at Medical Excess are highly experienced individuals, specifically in Employer Stop Loss and Transplant Carve Out insurance. The company has built a successful, industry-recognized operation in the field of its expertise. The primary focus continues on marketing, underwriting and managing Employer Stop Loss and Transplant Carve Out programs.

American International Group, Inc. (AIG), a world leader in insurance and financial services, is the leading international insurance organization with operations in more than 130 countries and jurisdictions. AIG companies serve commercial, institutional and individual customers through the most extensive worldwide property-casualty and life insurance networks of any insurer. In addition, AIG companies are leading providers of retirement services, financial services and asset management around the world. AIG's common stock is listed on the New York Stock Exchange, as well as the stock exchanges in Ireland and Tokyo.

Mission

As a member company of AIG, Medical Excess operates as a specialty medical underwriting division for a number of insurance and reinsurance exposures, with focus in underwriting medical stop loss and niche medical products. We apply our unique core of capabilities to integrate the transfer of risk with program management through:

- Innovative program engineering and development
- Actuarial and underwriting expertise
- Experienced medical management

Our driving force is to create measurable value to our national and international clients by positively impacting the high cost of medical exposures. Our clients include insurers, reinsurers, large employers, HMOs, educational institutions and government entities (local, state, federal and international).
