

Medical Excess Announces Jeff Meyer as Vice President of Sales

South Coast Metro, CA – John Snyder, CEO of Medical Excess, has announced the promotion of Jeff Meyer to the position of Vice President of Sales. “As the Regional Sales Director for the North Central territory, Jeff has not only built a substantial block of stop loss business, he has developed a large pooling partner base in support of our Organ Transplant product and has brought many of our MEDInnovation Third Party Administrators on board. Our sales team is fortunate to have a leader from the Regional Sales Director ranks with Jeff’s experience and success.”

Jeff has been in the medical/stop loss field since 1990, with the better part of 13 years spent working in the carrier space. In addition to Medical Excess Jeff began his stop loss career with ING working out of their Charlotte and Chicago offices. Rounding out his stop loss resume was time spent with two regional MGU’s. He holds a BS in Accounting from Christopher Newport University, Newport News, VA.
